Dr. R. B. Peery's Address Before Ladies' Missionary Society—Personal and Otherwise.

Prosperity, S. C., October 21.—Dr. R. B. Peery, Missionary to Japan, was with the Ladies' Missionary Society of Grace Lutheran Church last Sunday evening. His address was the feature of the evening and attracted a full house. After the congregation was dismissed he exhibited to those remaining some things peculiar to the worship of the native Japanese.

The Rev. J. G. Schaid, who had been in attendance upon the sessions of the Tennessee Synod, at St. Peter's church, preached in Grace church Sunday at the morning service.

Our farmers who were awaiting the rains to sow grain are now at work.

The Rev. C. M. Boyd has returned from the meeting of the Presbytery at Troy, in Abbeville county.

Mr. A. N. Crosson spent several days of this week in Spartanburg on business.

This has been a busy week for the merchants of Prosperity. Large crowds have been here and our stores have been thronged with customers.

Mr. and Miss Russell, of Georgia, are visiting the family of Col. H. C. Moseley.

Mr. John Crosson will move here next week and will occupy the Boozier house with Mr. Sease. We are glad to have him right in amongst us.

Mr. J. C. Schumpert has returned from a recent trip to his brother at Vidalia, Ga.

Miss Grace Harmon has been visiting in the country.

Mrs. Wright, of Newberry, is visiting the family of the Rev. Z. W. Bedenbaugh, who, it is understood is again confined to his bed.

Mr. W. P. Burr Harmon, of Greenwood, was in this community for several days recently.

Mr. Bushnell Miller, of Columbia, visited this community last week.

"CAROLINA."

Written for The Herald and News.

Wail, Carolina, wail! Put dust upon thy head! Thou mournest now thy honor lost—Has it forever fled?

Red-handed Murder stalks Abroad o'er all the land; Unblushing, with a brazen face, And slays on either hand.

Murder was coward once, But now he has no fears; Not guilty, is the verdict by A jury of his peers.

The brand of Cain is there Upon red Murder's brow; The verdict cannot take away The mark that is there now.

He goes, where old Cain went, Down to the land of Nod; The land of outcast vagabonds, To try to hide from God.

God puts on him a mark, A burning, fiery brand, So that he may be known as Cain—He cannot cleanse his hand.

IN EVERY CONFLICT

There must be leadership, and in no conflict of modern times is this more applicable than to the battle for leadership in the retail business. Our battle cry is "A Bigger Dollar's Worth." It's the talk of the town. Our friends in the country have taken it up and are singing our praises. The balmy bracing breezes of the beautiful Autumn mornings have taken it up, and it has been wafted to every hill top and through every valley. The buying public have already announced us the victors, and to the victors belong the spoils.

This space will not admit the mention in detail of the greatest bargains yet offered, but will mention a few items: Zibelines, Cheviots, Serges, Prunellas, Venetians, Soleils, Creponline, Homespun's, Ladies Cloths, Flannels, Casimers, Henriettas—Black and Colors. Everything in Waistings can be found here. Prettiest Furs and Jackets in the city. Call and examine them, no trouble to show goods. Everybody bidden to come, and is welcome to place or the winning side.

Your obedient servant,

S. J. Wooten.
